TITLE 4. BUSINESS AND COMMERCIAL LAW
SUBTITLE 7. CONSUMER PROTECTION
CHAPTER 109. USE OF “NOTARIO” AND SIMILAR TERMS.

4-109-101. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

- (1) “Notary public” means a person duly appointed or commissioned under § 21-14-101;
- (2) “Person” means an individual, organization, association, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, or any combination of them; and
- (3) “Practice of law” means:
  - (A) Holding out to the public as being entitled to practice law;
  - (B) Tendering or furnishing legal services or advice;
  - (C) Furnishing attorneys or counsel;
  - (D) Rendering legal services of any kind in actions or proceedings of any nature or in any other way or manner;
  - (E) Acting or in any other manner assuming to be entitled to practice law; or
  - (F) Advertising or assuming the title of lawyer or attorney, attorney at law, or equivalent terms in any language in such manner as to convey the impression that one is entitled to practice law or to furnish legal advice, service, or counsel.

4-109-102. Prohibited acts and practices.

It is a violation of this chapter for any person to advertise his or her services using the term “notario”, “notario publico”, or any similar term unless the person is a notary public as defined in this subchapter, and the person complies with the notice requirements in § 4-109-103.

4-109-103. Notice required.

(a) Any notary public who chooses to use the term “notario”, “notario publico”, or any similar term in any advertisement shall include in the advertisement the following notice: “I AM NOT A LICENSED ATTORNEY AND CANNOT ENGAGE IN THE PRACTICE OF LAW. I AM NOT A REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY WITH AUTHORITY OVER IMMIGRATION OR CITIZENSHIP AND I CANNOT OFFER LEGAL ADVICE OR OTHER ASSISTANCE REGARDING IMMIGRATION.”

(b) The notice shall be provided in both English and Spanish.

4-109-104. Exceptions.

This chapter does not apply to an attorney licensed in this state.

4-109-105. Enforcement.

A violation of this chapter is an unconscionable or deceptive act or practice under §§ 4-88-101 — 4-88-115.

TITLE 14. LOCAL GOVERNMENT.
SUBTITLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS.
CHAPTER 2. PUBLIC RECORDS GENERALLY.
SUBCHAPTER 3. UNIFORM REAL PROPERTY
ELECTRONIC RECORDING ACT

14-2-303. Validity of electronic documents.

(a) If a law requires, as a condition for recording, that a document be an original, be on paper or another tangible medium, or be in writing, the requirement is satisfied by an electronic document satisfying this subchapter.

(b) If a law requires, as a condition for recording, that a document be signed, the requirement is satisfied by an electronic signature.

(c) A requirement that a document or a signature associated with a document be notarized, acknowledged, verified, witnessed, or made under oath is satisfied if the electronic signature of the person authorized to perform that act, and all other information required to be included, is attached to or logically associated with the document or signature. A physical or electronic image of a stamp, impression, or seal need not accompany an electronic signature.

TITLE 16. PRACTICE, PROCEDURE, AND COURTS
SUBTITLE 4. EVIDENCE AND WITNESSES
CHAPTER 47. ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND PROOF OF INSTRUMENTS
SUBCHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

16-47-101. Proof or acknowledgment as prerequisite to recording real estate conveyances.

All deeds and other instruments in writing for the conveyance of any real estate, or by which any real estate may be affected in law or equity, shall be proven or duly acknowledged in conformity with the provisions of this act, before they or any of them shall be admitted to record.

16-47-102. Forms of acknowledgments - Validity - Acknowledgments of married persons.

(a) Either the forms of acknowledgments now in use in this state or any other forms which specify, in the caption or otherwise, the state and county or other place where the acknowledgment is taken, and which set out the name of the person acknowledging and, in instances where he or she acknowledges otherwise than in his or her own right, the name of the person, association, or corporation for which he or she acknowledges, and which recite in substance or the equivalent that the execution of the instrument was acknowledged by the person so named as acknowledging, or any other form of acknowledgment provided by law, may be used in the case of all deeds and other instruments in writing for the conveyance of real or personal property, or whereby such property is to be affected in law or equity, and also in any other case where such acknowledgment is for any purpose required or authorized by law. An acknowledgment in any of these forms shall be sufficient to entitle the instrument to be recorded and to be read in evidence.

(b) The acknowledgment of a married person, both as to the disposition of his or her own property and as to the relinquishment of dower, curtesy, and homestead in the property of a spouse, may be made in the same form as if he or she were sole and without any examination separate and apart from a spouse, and without necessity for a specific reference therein to the interest so conveyed or relinquished.

16-47-103. Officers authorized to take proof or acknowledgment of real estate conveyances.

(a) The proof or acknowledgment of every deed or instrument of writing for the conveyance of any real estate shall be taken by one of the following courts or officers:

(1) When acknowledged or proven within this state, before the Supreme Court, the circuit court, the chancery court, or any judges thereof, the clerk of any court of record, any county or probate judge, or before any justice of the peace or notary public;

(2) When acknowledged or proven outside this state, and within the United States or its territories, or in any of the colonies or possessions or dependencies of the United States, before any court of the United States, or any state or territory, or colony or possession or dependency of the United States, having a seal, or a clerk of any such court, or before any notary public, or before the mayor of any incorporated city or town, or the chief officer of any city or town having a seal, or before a commissioner appointed by the Governor of this state;

(3) When acknowledged or proven outside the United States, before any court of any state, kingdom, or empire having a seal; any mayor or chief officer of any city or town having an official seal; or before any officer of any foreign country who by the laws of that country is authorized to take probate of the conveyance of real estate of his own country if the officer has, by law, an official seal.

(b) The acknowledgment of any deed or mortgage, when taken outside the United States, may be taken and certified by a United States consul.

16-47-104. Attestation of acknowledgments.

(a) In cases of acknowledgment or proof of deeds or conveyances of real estate taken within the United States or territories thereof, when taken before any court or officer having a seal of office, the deed or conveyance shall be attested under the seal of office. If the officer has no seal of office, then it shall be attested under the official signature of the officer.

(b) In all cases of deeds and conveyances proven or acknowledged outside the United States or its territories, the acknowledgment or proof must be attested under the official seal of the court or officer before whom the probate is had.

16-47-105. Certificate of acknowledgment.

Every court or officer that shall take the proof or acknowledgment of any deed or conveyance of real estate, or the relinquishment of dower of any married woman in any conveyance of the real estate of her husband, shall grant a certificate thereof and cause the certificate to be endorsed on the deed, instrument, conveyance, or relinquishment of dower, which certificate shall be signed by the clerk of the court where probate is taken in court or by the officer before whom the probate is taken and sealed, if he has a seal of office.

16-47-106. Manner of making acknowledgment - Proof of deed or instrument - Proof of identity of grantor or witness.

(a) The acknowledgment of deeds and instruments of writing for the conveyance of real estate, or whereby such real estate is to be affected in law or equity, shall be by the grantor appearing in person before a court or officer having the authority by law to take the acknowledgment and stating that he had executed the deed or instrument for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned and set forth.

(b) When a deed or instrument referred to in subsection (a) of this section is to be proved, it shall be done by one (1) or more of the subscribing witnesses personally appearing before the proper court or officer and stating on oath that he saw the grantor subscribe the deed or instrument of writing or that the grantor acknowledged in his presence that he had subscribed and executed the deed or instrument for the purposes and consideration therein mentioned, and that he had subscribed the deed or instrument as a witness at the request of the grantor.

(c) If any grantor has not acknowledged the execution of a deed or instrument referred to in subsection (a) of this section, and the subscribing witnesses are dead or cannot be had, then the deed or instrument may be proved by the evidence of the handwriting of the grantor and of at least one (1) of the subscribing witnesses, which evidence shall consist of the deposition of two (2) or more disinterested persons, swearing to each signature.

(d) When any grantor in any deed or instrument that conveys real estate, or whereby any real estate may be affected in law or equity, or any witness to any like instrument, shall present himself before any court or other officer for the purpose of acknowledging or proving the execution of the deed or instrument, if the grantor or witness shall be personally unknown to the court or officer, his identity and his being the person he purports to be on the face of such instrument of writing shall be proven to the court or officer, which proof may be made by witnesses known to the court or officer, or by the affidavit of the grantor or witness if the court or officer shall be satisfied therewith. The proof or affidavit shall also be endorsed on the deed or instrument of writing.

16-47-107. Forms for acknowledgment.

(a) For all deeds, conveyances, deeds of trust, mortgages, and other instruments in writing affecting or purporting to affect the title of any real estate situated in this state and executed by corporations, business trusts, estates, partnerships, limited liability companies, associations, joint ventures, or any other legal entities, the following form is deemed to be a valid acknowledgment and sufficient for recordation or entry into evidence under § 18-12-202:

“State of . . . . .
County of . . . . .

On this ..... day of ....., 20 19..., before me, ....., a Notary Public, (or before an officer within this State or without the State now qualified under existing law to take acknowledgments), duly commissioned, qualified and acting, within and for said County and State, appeared in person the within named ..... and ....., (being the person or persons authorized by said corporation, [business trust, estate, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, or other legal entity] to execute such instrument, stating their respective capacities in that behalf), to me personally well known (or satisfactorily proven to be such person), who stated that [he, she, or they] was [were] the ..... [and .....]. of the ....., a corporation [business trust, estate, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, or other legal entity], and was [were] duly authorized in [his, her, or their] respective capacity [capacities] to execute the foregoing nstrument(s) for and in the name and behalf of said corporation [business trust, estate, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture or other legal entity], and further stated and acknowledged that [he, she, or they] had so signed, executed, and delivered said foregoing instrument for the consideration, uses, and purposes therein mentioned and set forth.

“IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal this ..... day of ....., 20 ....

(Notary Public)”

(b) For all deeds, conveyances, deeds of trust, mortgages, and other instruments in writing affecting or purporting to affect the title of any real estate situated in this state and executed by individuals, the following form is deemed to be a valid acknowledgment and sufficient for recordation or entry into evidence under § 18-12-202:

“State of.....
County of .....

On this ..... day of ....., 20..., before me, a Notary Public, (or before any officer within this State or without the State now qualified under existing law to take acknowledgments,) appeared the within named ..... [and .....], to me personally well known (or satisfactorily proven to be such person), who stated and acknowledged that [he, she or they] had so signed, executed and delivered said foregoing instrument for the consideration, uses and purposes therein mentioned and set forth.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal this ..... day of ....., 20....

(Notary Public)”

(c) For all deeds, conveyances, deeds of trust, mortgages, and other instruments in writing affecting or purporting to affect the title of any real estate situated in this state and executed by attorneys in fact, the following form is deemed to be a valid acknowledgment and sufficient for recordation or entry into evidence under § 18-12-202:

“State of .....

County of .....

On this the .....day of ....., 20....., before me, ....., the undersigned officer, personally appeared ....., known to me (or satisfactorily proven) to be the person whose name is subscribed as attorney in fact for ....., and acknowledged that he executed the same as the act of his principal for the consideration, uses, and purposes therein contained.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I hereunto set my hand and official seal.

Title of Officer.”

(d) All deeds or instruments affecting or purporting to affect the title to land executed in the above and foregoing form listed in subsections (a), (b), or (c) of this section as applicable, shall be good and sufficient.

(e) The bracketed language listed in subsections (a), (b), and (c) above, suggests alternate language and is not required to be in an acknowledgment when the alternate language is not applicable.

(f) The use of the present or past tense in the form of acknowledgment shall not affect the validity of the acknowledgement.

(g) The heading of the acknowledgment may list either:

- (1) The county where the officer executing the acknowledgment resides; or
- (2) The county where the acknowledgment occurred.

16-47-108. Validation of instruments affecting title to property.

All deeds, conveyances, deeds of trust, mortgages, marriage contracts, and other instruments in writing, affecting or purporting to affect the title to any real estate or personal property situated in this state, which have been recorded and which are defective or ineffectual:

- (1) Because of failure to comply with § 18-12-403; or
- (2) Because the officer who certified the acknowledgment or acknowledgments to such instruments omitted any words required by law to be in the certificate or acknowledgments; or
- (3) Because the officer failed or omitted to attach his seal to such certificate; or
- (4) Because the officer attached to any such certificate a seal not bearing the words and devices required by law; or
- (5) Because the officer was a mayor of a city or an incorporated town in the State of Arkansas and as such was not authorized to certify to executions and acknowledgments to such instruments, or was the deputy of an official duly authorized by law to take acknowledgments but whose deputy was not so authorized; or
- (6) Because the notary public failed to state the date of the expiration of his commission on the certificate of acknowledgment, or incorrectly stated it thereon; or
- (7) Because the officer incorrectly dated the certificate of acknowledgment or failed to state the county wherein the acknowledgment was taken; or
- (8) Because the acknowledgment was certified in any county of the State of Arkansas by any person holding an unexpired commission as notary public under the laws of the state who had, at the time of the certification, ceased to be a resident of the county within and for which he or she was commissioned; shall be as binding and effectual as though the certificate of acknowledgment or proof of execution was in due form, bore the proper seal, and was certified to by a duly authorized officer.

16-47-109. Validation of acknowledgments of personnel of armed forces.

All acknowledgments taken before March 20, 1945, and subscribed by officers of the United States armed forces acknowledging the signatures of soldiers in the armed forces are validated in every respect.

16-47-110. Recorded deed or written instrument affecting real estate.

(a) Every deed or instrument in writing which conveys or affects real estate and which is acknowledged or proved and certified as prescribed by this act may, together with the certificate of acknowledgment, proof, or relinquishment of dower, be recorded by the recorder of the county where such land to be conveyed or affected thereby is located, and when so recorded may be read in evidence in any court in this state without further proof of execution.

(b) If it appears at any time that any deed or instrument duly acknowledged or proved and recorded as prescribed by this act is lost or not within the power and control of the party wishing to use the deed or instrument, the record thereof or a transcript of the record certified by the recorder may be read in evidence without further proof of execution.

(c) Neither the certificate of acknowledgment nor the probate of any such deed or instrument, nor the record or transcript thereof, shall be conclusive, but it may be rebutted.

SUBCHAPTER 2. UNIFORM ACKNOWLEDGMENT ACT.

16-47-201. Acknowledgment of instruments.

Any instrument may be acknowledged in the manner and form provided by the laws of this state, or as provided by this act.

16-47-202. Officials authorized to take within the state.

The acknowledgment of any instrument may be made in this state before:

- (1) A judge of a court of record or before any former judge of a court of record who served at least four (4) or more years;
- (2) A clerk of any court of record;
- (3) A commissioner or registrar or recorder of deeds;
- (4) A notary public;
- (5) A justice of the peace; or
- (6) A master in chancery or registrar in chancery.

16-47-203. Officials authorized to take within the United States.

The acknowledgment of any instrument may be without the state but within the United States or a territory or insular possession of the United States and within the jurisdiction of the officer, before:

- (1) A clerk or deputy clerk of any federal court;
- (2) A clerk or deputy clerk of any court of record of any state or other jurisdiction;
- (3) A notary public;
- (4) A commissioner of deeds;
- (5) Any person authorized by the laws of such other jurisdiction to take acknowledgments.

16-47-204. Officials authorized to take without the United States.

The acknowledgment of any instrument may be made without the United States before:

- (1) An ambassador, minister, charge d'affaires, counselor to or secretary of a legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, commercial attache, or consular agent of the United States accredited to the country where the acknowledgment is made.
- (2) A notary public of the country where the acknowledgment is made.

(3) A judge or clerk of a court of record of the country where the acknowledgment is made.

16-47-205. Proof of identity of person making.

The officer taking the acknowledgment shall know or have satisfactory evidence that the person making the acknowledgment is the person described in and who executed the instrument.

16-47-206. Acknowledgment by a married woman.

An acknowledgment by a married woman may be made in the same form as though she were unmarried.

16-47-207. Repealed § 2013-999.

16-47-208. Execution of certificate by officer.

The certificate of the acknowledging officer shall be completed by his signature, his official seal if he has one, the title of his office, and if he is a notary public, the date his commission expires.

16-47-209. Authentication of acknowledgments.

(a) If the acknowledgment is taken within this state or is made without this state but in the United States by one (1) of the officers designated in § 16-47-203, or without the United States by an officer of the United States, no authentication shall be necessary.

(b) If the acknowledgment is made without the United States and by a notary public or a judge or clerk of a court of record of the country where the acknowledgment is made, the certificate shall be authenticated by a certificate under the great seal of state of the country, affixed by the custodian of such seal, or by a certificate of a diplomatic, consular, or commercial officer of the United States accredited to that country, certifying as to the official character of such officer.

16-47-210. Acknowledgments under laws of other states.

Notwithstanding any provision in this act contained, the acknowledgment of any instrument without this state in compliance with the manner and form prescribed by the laws of the place of its execution, if in a state, a territory or insular possession of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, or in the Philippine Islands, verified by the official seal of the officer before whom it is acknowledged, shall have the same effect as an acknowledgment in the manner and form prescribed by the laws of this state for instruments executed within the state.

16-47-211. Validation of unauthenticated writings affecting title to property.

All deeds, conveyances, deeds of trust, mortgages, mineral leases, marriage contracts, and other instruments in writing, affecting or purporting to affect title to any real estate or personal property situated in this state, which have been recorded or executed prior to July 19, 1971, and which may be defective or ineffectual because of the failure to have the authentication formerly required by Acts 1943, No. 169, §§ 9 and 10, prior to these amendments, shall be binding and effectual as though such instruments contained the required authentication.

16-47-212. Act cumulative.

This act shall be cumulative to other acts of the General Assembly relating to acknowledgments.

16-47-213. Acknowledgments by persons serving in or with the armed forces of the United States within or without the United States.

In addition to the acknowledgment of instruments in the manner and form and as otherwise authorized by this act, persons serving in or with the armed forces of the United States or their dependents may acknowledge the same wherever located before any commissioned officer in active service of the armed forces of the United States with the rank of second lieutenant or higher in the Army, Air Force or Marine Corps, or ensign or higher in the Navy or United States Coast Guard. The instrument shall not be rendered invalid by the failure to state therein the place of execution or acknowledgment. No authentication of the officer's certificate of acknowledgment shall be required but the officer taking the acknowledgment shall endorse thereon or attach thereto a certificate substantially in the following form:

“On this ..... day of ..... , 19 ..., before me, ....., the undersigned officer, personally appeared ..... (Serial No. ....) known to me or satisfactorily proven to be (serving in or with the armed forces of the United States) (a dependent of ....., (Serial No. ....) a person serving in or with the armed forces of the United States) and to be the person whose name is subscribed to the within instrument and acknowledged that ..... he ..... executed the same for the purposes therein contained. And the undersigned does further certify that he is at the date of this certificate a commissioned officer of the rank stated below and is in the active service of the armed forces of the United States.

Signature of the Officer

.....
Rank and Serial No. of Officer and Command to which attached.”

16-47-214. Acknowledgments previously taken unaffected.

No acknowledgment heretofore taken shall be affected by anything contained in this act.

16-47-215. Uniformity of interpretation.

This act shall be so interpreted as to make uniform the laws of those states which enact it.

16-47-216. Title of act.

This act may be cited as the “Uniform Acknowledgment Act”.

16-47-217. Validation of prior acknowledgments - Construction of uniform act.

It is the intent and purpose of this section that all acknowledgments taken subsequent to Acts 1957, No. 411 either in accordance with the Uniform Acknowledgment Act or in accordance with the laws of this state in effect at the time of adoption of the Uniform Acknowledgment Act be cured and validated for all purposes; and that neither Acts 1957, No. 411 nor the Uniform Acknowledgment Act to which it is amendatory shall be construed to repeal or modify any laws relative to the taking of acknowledgments and the authentication thereof which were in effect in this state at the time of adoption of the Uniform Acknowledgment Act, but that the Uniform Acknowledgment Act shall be deemed to provide an alternative system for taking and authenticating acknowledgments.

16-47-218. Validation of acknowledgments - Construction of acts.

All acknowledgments taken subsequent to Acts 1959, No. 127 either in accordance with the Uniform Acknowledgment Act or in accordance with the laws of this state in effect at the time of adoption of the Uniform Acknowledgment Act are cured and validated for all purposes; and neither Acts 1959, No. 127 nor the Uniform Acknowledgment Act shall be construed to repeal or modify any laws relative to the taking of acknowledgments and the authentication thereof which were in effect in this state at the time of adoption of the Uniform Acknowledgment Act, but that the Uniform Acknowledgment Act shall be deemed to provide an alternative system for taking and authenticating acknowledgments.

TITLE 18. PROPERTY
SUBTITLE 2. REAL PROPERTY
CHAPTER 12. CONVEYANCES
SUBCHAPTER 2. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND PROOF OF INSTRUMENTS

18-12-201. Proof or acknowledgment as prerequisite to recording real estate conveyances.

All deeds and other instruments in writing for the conveyance of any real estate, or by which any real estate may be affected in law or equity, shall be proven or duly acknowledged in conformity with the provisions of this act before they or any of them shall be admitted to record.

18-12-202. Forms of acknowledgments -- Validity -- Acknowledgments of married persons.

(a) (1) Either the forms of acknowledgments now in use in this state or any other forms may be used in the case of all deeds and other instruments in writing for the conveyance of real or personal property which:

(A) Specify, in the caption or otherwise, the state and county or other place where the acknowledgment is taken;

(B) Set out the name of the person acknowledging and, in instances in which he or she acknowledges otherwise than in his or her own right, the name of the person, association, or corporation for which he or she acknowledges; and

(C) Recite in substance or the equivalent that the execution of the instrument was acknowledged by the person so named as acknowledging, or any other form of acknowledgment provided by law.

(2) These forms may also be used when the property is to be affected in law or equity and also in any other case in which such an acknowledgment is for any purpose required or authorized by law.

(3) An acknowledgment in any of these forms shall be sufficient to entitle the instrument to be recorded and to be read in evidence.

(b) The acknowledgment of a married person, both as to the disposition of his or her own property and as to the relinquishment of dower, curtesy, and homestead in the property of a spouse, may be made in the same form as if that person were sole and without any examination separate and apart from a spouse, and without necessity for a specific reference therein to the interest so conveyed or relinquished.

18-12-203. Officers authorized to take proof or acknowledgment of real estate conveyances.

(a) The proof or acknowledgment of every deed or instrument of writing for the conveyance of any real estate shall be taken by one (1) of the following courts or officers:

(1) When acknowledged or proved within this state, before the Supreme Court, the circuit court, or any justices or judges thereof, the clerk of any court of record, any county judge, or before any notary public;

(2) When acknowledged or proved outside this state, and within the United States or its territories, or in any of the colonies or possessions or dependencies of the United States, before any court of the United States, or any state or territory, or colony or possession or dependency of the United States, having a seal, or a clerk of any such court, or before any notary public, or before the mayor of any incorporated city or town, or the chief officer of any city or town having a seal, or before a commissioner appointed by the Governor; and

(3) When acknowledged or proved outside the United States, before any:

(A) Court of any state, kingdom, or empire having a seal;

(B) Mayor or chief officer of any city or town having an official seal; or

(C) Officer of any foreign country who by the laws of that country is authorized to take probate of the conveyance of real estate of his or her own country if the officer has, by law, an official seal.

(b) The acknowledgment of any deed or mortgage, when taken outside the United States, may be taken and certified by a United States consul.

18-12-204. Attestation of acknowledgments.

(a) In cases of acknowledgment or proof of deeds or conveyances of real estate taken within the United States or territories thereof, when taken before any court or officer having a seal of office, the deed or conveyance shall be attested under the seal of office. If the officer has no seal of office, then it shall be attested under the official signature of the officer.

(b) In all cases of deeds and conveyances proved or acknowledged outside the United States or their territories, the acknowledgment or proof must be attested under the official seal of the court or officer before whom the probate is had.

18-12-205. Certificate of acknowledgment.

(a) Any court or officer that takes a proof or an acknowledgment of any instrument affecting real property shall grant a certificate of the proof or acknowledgment.

(b) The court or officer shall cause the certificate of the proof or acknowledgment to be endorsed on the instrument affecting real property.

(c) The certificate of the proof or acknowledgment shall be signed by the clerk of the court or by the officer if he or she has a seal of office.

18-12-206. Manner of making acknowledgment -- Proof of deed or instrument -- Proof of identity of grantor or witness.

(a) The acknowledgment of deeds and instruments of writing for the conveyance of real estate, or whereby such real estate is to be affected in law or equity, shall be by the grantor appearing in person before a court or officer having the authority by law to take the acknowledgment and stating that he or she had executed the deed or instrument for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned and set forth.

(b) When a deed or instrument referred to in subsection (a) of this section is to be proved, it shall be done by one (1) or more of the subscribing witnesses personally appearing before the proper court or officer and stating on oath that he or she saw the grantor subscribe the deed or instrument of writing or that the grantor acknowledged in his or her presence that he or she had subscribed and executed the deed or instrument for the purposes and consideration therein mentioned, and that he or she had subscribed the deed or instrument as a witness at the request of the grantor.

(c) If any grantor has not acknowledged the execution of a deed or instrument referred to in subsection (a) of this section and the subscribing witnesses are dead or cannot be had, then the deed or instrument may be proved by the evidence of the handwriting of the grantor and of at least one (1) of the subscribing witnesses. This evidence shall consist of the deposition of two (2) or more disinterested persons, swearing to each signature.

(d) (1) When any grantor in any deed or instrument that conveys real estate or whereby any real estate may be affected in law or equity, or any witness to any like instrument, shall present himself or herself before any court or other officer for the purpose of acknowledging or proving the execution of the deed or instrument, if the grantor or witness shall be personally unknown to the court or officer, his or her identity and his or her being the person he or she purports to be on the face of such instrument of writing shall be proved to the court or officer.

(2) Proof may be made by witnesses known to the court or officer or by the affidavit of the grantor or witness if the court or officer shall be satisfied therewith. The proof or affidavit shall also be endorsed on the deed or instrument of writing.

18-12-207. Repealed § 2013-999.

18-12-208. Defects.

(a) All deeds, conveyances, deeds of trust, mortgages, marriage contracts, and other instruments in writing affecting or purporting to affect the title to any real estate or personal property situated in this state, which have been recorded and which are defective or ineffectual because:

- (1) Of failure to comply with § 18-12-403;
- (2) The officer who certified the acknowledgment or acknowledgments to such instruments omitted any words required by law to be in the certificate or acknowledgments;
- (3) The officer failed or omitted to attach his or her seal to the certificate;
- (4) The officer attached to any such certificate a seal not bearing the words and devices required by law;
- (5) The officer was a mayor of a city or an incorporated town in the state of Arkansas and as such was not authorized to certify to executions and acknowledgments to such instruments, or was the deputy of an official duly authorized by law to take acknowledgments but whose deputy was not so authorized;
- (6) The notary public failed to state the date of the expiration of his or her commission on the certificate of acknowledgment, or incorrectly stated it thereon;
- (7) The officer incorrectly dated the certificate of acknowledgment or failed to state the county wherein the acknowledgment was taken; or
- (8) The acknowledgment was certified in any county of the State of Arkansas by any person holding an unexpired commission as notary public under the laws of the state who had, at the time of the certification, ceased to be a resident of the county within and for which he or she was commissioned, shall be as binding and effectual as though the certificate of acknowledgment or proof of execution was in due form, bore the proper seal, and was certified to by a duly authorized officer.

(b) A deed, conveyance, deed of trust, mortgage, marriage contract, and other instrument in writing, affecting or purporting to affect the title to any real estate or personal property situated in this state, which is executed after August 13, 1993, shall not be deemed defective or ineffectual because:

- (1) The officer failed or omitted to attach his or her seal to the certificate;
- (2) The officer attached to any such certificate a seal not bearing the words and devices required by law;
- (3) The notary public failed to state the date of the expiration of his or her commission on the certificate of acknowledgment, or incorrectly stated it thereon;
- (4) The officer incorrectly dated the certificate of acknowledgment or failed to state the county wherein the acknowledgment was taken; or
- (5) The acknowledgment was certified in any county of the State of Arkansas by any person holding an unexpired commission as notary public under the laws of the state who had, at the time of the certification, ceased to be a resident of the county within and for which he or she was commissioned.

(c) A deed, conveyance, deed of trust, mortgage, marriage contract, and any other instrument in writing, affecting or purporting to affect the title to any real estate or personal property situated in this state, whether executed before, on, or after the effective date of this subsection, shall not be found insufficient to satisfy the requirements of § 18-12-202:

- (1) Because the acknowledgment thereof does not strictly comply with the form contained in § 16-47-107 or omits the words "for the consideration, uses, and purposes therein mentioned or set forth" or uses similar words;
- (2) Because the gender listed in the acknowledgment thereof does not match the gender of the person acknowledging the instrument;

(3) Because the acknowledgment thereof does not identify the title or position of the person acknowledging the instrument on behalf of a corporation, partnership, company, trust, association or other entity; or

(4) Where a good faith attempt at material compliance with 16-47-107(a), (b), or (c), as applicable, has been made and there is no factual dispute as to the authenticity of the signature of the person making acknowledgement thereof.

(d) Notwithstanding an acknowledgment to a deed or other instrument which may contain one or more of the defects set forth in this section, if a deed or other instrument is recorded, it shall:

(1) Provide constructive notice thereafter to all parties of the matters contained in the deed or other instrument; and

(2) Be treated as any other deed or instrument in writing under §16-47-110, and may be read into evidence in any court in this state without further proof of execution.

(e) A valid jurat may act as a substitute for a certificate of acknowledgment for instruments recorded on or after the effective date of this subsection.

18-12-209. Recorded deed or written instrument affecting real estate.

(a) Every deed or instrument in writing which conveys or affects real estate and which is acknowledged or proved and certified as prescribed by this act may, together with the certificate of acknowledgment, proof, or relinquishment of dower, be recorded by the recorder of the county where such land to be conveyed or affected thereby is located, and when so recorded may be read in evidence in any court in this state without further proof of execution.

(b) If it appears at any time that any deed or instrument duly acknowledged or proved and recorded as prescribed by this act is lost or not within the power and control of the party wishing to use the deed or instrument, the record thereof, or a transcript of the record certified by the recorder, may be read in evidence without further proof of execution.

(c) Neither the certificate of acknowledgment nor the probate of any such deed or instrument, nor the record or transcript thereof, shall be conclusive, but it may be rebutted.

(5) Is found by a court to have improperly notarized documents according to the law;

(6) Is found by a court to have charged fees higher than allowed under § 21-6-309; or

(7) Fails to complete the requirements under § 21-14-101.

(b) The Secretary of State may investigate a possible violation of this section upon a signed complaint from any person.

(c) After a notary public receives notice from the Secretary of State that the notary public's commission has been revoked, unless the revocation has been enjoined the notary public shall immediately send or have delivered to the Secretary of State:

- (1) The notary public's journal of notarial acts;
  - (2) All other papers and copies relating to the notary public's notarial acts; and
  - (3) The notary public's official seal.
- (d) A person whose notary public commission has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of this section may subsequently apply for commission and appointment as a notary public after ten (10) years have elapsed from the date of the revocation.

21-14-113. Notice of revocation -- Appeal.

- (a) If the Secretary of State revokes a notary public commission, he or she shall serve the notary public with written notice that explains the reason or reasons for the revocation.
- (b)
  - (1) The notary public may appeal the revocation to the Pulaski County Circuit Court within thirty (30) days after service of the notice of revocation is perfected.
  - (2) The notary public shall appeal by petitioning the court to set aside the revocation and attaching to the petition copies of the Secretary of State's Certificate of Revocation and the written notice of revocation.
- (c) The court may summarily order the Secretary of State to reinstate the notary public or take other action the court considers appropriate.
- (d) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

21-14-114. Rules.

The Secretary of State may promulgate rules necessary to administer this chapter.

SUBCHAPTER 2. FACSIMILE SIGNATURES AND SEALS

21-14-201. Definitions.

As used in this subchapter:

- (1)
  - (A) "Commercial document" means any instrument, certificate, report, billing, affidavit, or other document which is required to bear a notary certificate by the terms of a purchase order, contract, bid specification, construction standard, testing standard, or other commercial standard, specification, or practice.
  - (B) The term "commercial document" shall not include any deed or other instrument in writing for the conveyance of any real estate or by which any real estate may be affected in law or equity;
- (2) "Facsimile seal" means the reproduction by engraving, imprinting, stamping, or other means of the seal of office of a notary public, containing the information described in § 21-14-107(b)(2); and 21-14-307. Physical proximity of signers of electronic documents required.

- (a) An electronic notary public shall not perform an electronic notarial act if the document signer does not appear in person before the electronic notary public at the time of the electronic notarial act.
- (b)
  - (1) The methods for identifying a document signer for an electronic notarial act shall be the same as the methods required for a paper-based notarization under this chapter.
  - (2) The electronic notary public shall not under any circumstances base identification merely upon familiarity with the electronic signature of the signer or an electronic verification process that authenticates the electronic signature of the signer when the signer is not in the physical presence of the electronic notary public.

21-14-308. Fees.

- (a) An electronic notary public may charge and collect fees that are:

- (1) Reasonably established by the electronic notary public; and
  - (2) Disclosed and agreed upon by the client and principal before the electronic notarial act occurs.
- (b)
- (1) An electronic notary public who knowingly charges, demands, or receives a fee not authorized by law or who charges, demands, or receives a fee greater than provided under this section is guilty of a violation.
  - (2) Upon conviction, he or she shall be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense.

TITLE 25. STATE GOVERNMENT.
CHAPTER 31. ELECTRONIC RECORDS AND SIGNATURES

25-31-101. Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Arkansas Electronic Records and Signatures Act”.

25-31-102. Construction. The provisions of this chapter shall be construed to promote the development of electronic government and electronic commerce. The Secretary of State shall develop guidelines for the use of electronic signatures and provide a register of electronic signature verification companies.

25-31-103. Definitions. As used in this chapter the term:

(1) “Electronic signature” means an electronic or digital method executed or adopted by a party with the intent to be bound by or to authenticate a record, which is:

- (A) Unique to the person using it;
- (B) Capable of verification;
- (C) Under the sole control of the person using it; and
- (D) Linked to data in such a manner that if the data are changed the electronic signature is invalidated;

(2) “Electronic signature verification company” means a company providing verification of an electronic signature. An electronic signature verification company shall obtain a surety bond in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000);

(3) “Person” means a natural person, corporation, trust, partnership, incorporated or unincorporated association, or any other legal entity and also includes any department, agency, authority, or instrumentality of the state or its political subdivisions; and

(4) “Record” means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form. “Record” includes both electronic records and printed, typewritten, and tangible records.

25-31-104. Agreement to electronic record or signature.

(a) Any person may, but shall not be required to, accept or agree to be bound by an electronic record which is:

- (1) Executed or adopted with an electronic signature; and
- (2) Witnessed or notarized using an electronic signature, when that acceptance or agreement is otherwise required to be witnessed or notarized.

(b) When a person or other entity accepts or agrees to be bound by an electronic record as provided in this section, then any rule of law which requires:

- (1) A record of that type to be in writing, shall be deemed satisfied;
- (2) A signature, shall be deemed satisfied; and
- (3) A witness or notary, shall be deemed satisfied by the electronic signature of the witness or notary.

25-31-105. Unauthorized use of electronic signature.

(a) A person whose electronic signature is used in an unauthorized fashion may recover or obtain any or all of the following against the person who engaged in such an unauthorized use, provided that the use of the electronic signature in an unauthorized fashion was negligent, reckless, or intentional:

(1) Actual damages;

(2) Equitable relief, including, but not limited to, an injunction or restitution of money or property;

(3) Punitive damages under the circumstances set forth in Arkansas law;

(4) Reasonable attorney's fees and expenses; and

(5) Any other relief which the court deems proper.

(b) Nothing in this section shall preclude criminal sanctions.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to waive the sovereign immunity otherwise provided by law to the state or any of its political subdivisions.

CHAPTER 32. UNIFORM ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS ACT

25-32-111. Notarization and acknowledgment.

If a law requires a signature or record to be notarized, acknowledged, verified, or made under oath, the requirement is satisfied if the electronic signature of the person authorized to perform those acts, together with all other information required to be included by other applicable law, is attached to or logically associated with the signature or record.
